An old map of Wilmot is said to be stored in a closet at the Wilmot Public Library. Chris will check to see if it is indeed there.

WOW (advertisement, program, etc.)

The online WOW calendar is open to all fundraising events. Other aspects of this topic were carried forward.

Betsy Forsham auction - funeral sign

The auction is to be held on August 23. The WHS will purchase 15' Goodhue Funeral Home sign. Mary will ask Patty McGoldrick if the New London Historical Society would like to display this sign with the Wilmot Hearse. The Board is very grateful to Betsy for her in-kind donations of documents and photos.

Keys for Max Campbell trunk/ Youngman Diaries

The keys are missing and need to be located. We also need to find the hard copies of the Youngman Diaries for the author of a book.

Curiosity Shop

Liz has received several old magazines and newspapers, which we will put up for sale at the Curiosity shop.

Old Business

Liz visited the Davenports and presented the Boston Cane photograph.

Sue will call Sandy Davenport Hurst (603 763-5581 to get permission to visit the Garnet mines.

She will then set up a tour for us starting near the North Road Cemetery (R at N. Wilmot Church, 1 mile to right on Grafton Rd./North Rd., cemetery on left).

Program

1976 Bicentennial Retrospective

This program is set for Sunday, Oct. 29. The Town Hall has been reserved. The Board will need to find all the documents about the Bicentennial, and get photos from the people who were here in 1976. The Board will make a list of possible photo contributors (e.g. Tootie Fleury, Julie Morse, Jim/Judy Rayno, Barbara Sanborn.....), and scan them for a slide show.

Another resource will be the newsletters from the Bicentennial Committee

The Meeting was adjourned at 2:40 P.M.
